PRINTED PAPER ANSWER SIMULATION

(NOT HANDWRITTEN)

Student response

The water cycle has three main stages:

1. Evaporation: heat changes liquid water into vapour.

2. Condensation: vapour cools and forms clouds.

3. Precipitation: water falls back to Earth as rain.

My explanation: the Sun provides energy for evaporation.

This is typeset text on a page, not handwriting.